London 2011
Have a Go

Thank you for choosing to be involved with WorldSkills London 2011. We want you to get the most out of your involvement so we have produced a logo for you to use on your communications.

This document is a brief introduction to the logos available and some guidance on how best to use them. For full technical details please see the WorldSkills London 2011 Logo Application guidelines at worldskillslondon2011.com/resources

WorldSkills London 2011 Have a Go

WorldSkills London 2011 Have a Go (WorldSkills Have a Go) gives a 'bite-size' taster of a new skill, trade or profession. WorldSkills London 2011 wants to create one million opportunities for people to Have a Go at a new skill to help them get on at work and in their careers.

These will take place:

Firstly, in the event itself and will give thousands of visitors the chance to try one of the many skills on offer.

Secondly, outside of the event, throughout the UK from January 2011, culminating in the 3-week skills festival (in the workplace, at colleges, schools and community centres).

Using the WorldSkills Have a Go logo

Below are a few pointers on how to best use the WorldSkills London 2011 logo.

How much space?

Always surround the logo with clear space equal to the width of the 'w' in the WorldSkills London 2011 Have a Go logo.

How small?

To ensure the logo is legible try not to reproduce under the recommended minimum size of 20mm wide.

What if it's not on white?

When it's not possible to position the logo on a white background, it should be positioned in a white tinted box (see full guidelines for more information).

How the WorldSkills Have a Go lock-up logo looks with college/school and business logos added

It is possible to add both a business logo and a college/school logo to the lock-up at the same time, shown far right. However you should not include more than two logos in the lock-up.
